

We're versatile

Versatility is the key with Harvey Jones Kitchens. We will work with you to create a totally unique design each and every time; Any layout, any colour, any handle, any worktop... Starting from your wishlist, our talented designers are able to guide you through the often daunting array of choices and options available in the process of planning your kitchen, and make practical and inspiring suggestions about the best use of your space.

Most importantly, they will listen to what you want and what you must have, helping you to achieve your perfect kitchen.

We love...
Colour

ANY KITCHEN ANY COLOUR
We are best known for our 'primed for painting' kitchens which are delivered to you from our workshop expertly primed with two coats of tough white undercoat. Then, after installation on site, they are ready for handpainting in any colour you choose...

We're the specialists

The installation of your kitchen is a vital step in bringing out the best in our furniture. To achieve the optimum finish in your kitchen, we offer comprehensive installation and handpainting services, using only highly skilled and experienced craftsmen. This means you can relax, safe in the knowledge that your kitchen will be finished to the highest standard.

What's more, by choosing to use our installation and handpainting team, you will qualify for the comprehensive coverage offered by our 10-year Cabinetry Guarantee, giving you complete peace of mind.

Delivery, fitting and painting are all available nationwide.
